

DUNLOP DIARY

Dunlop Church of Scotland is a Registered Scottish Charity. Charity Number SC000447

From the Church of Scotland, Dunlop

February 2020

Dear friends and neighbours,

Along with almost everyone else in and around Dunlop, I've been tuning in to Channel 4 of a Friday evening to watch Deadwater Fell. At the time of writing, we are two episodes in, and the plot is looking ever more complex. I'd be struggling to follow it anyway, as I'm probably more absorbed in looking out for familiar places and faces than keeping track of the to-ing and fro-ing of the action, which moves from past to present and back again.

It is quite a strange experience to watch this drama as it's a mixture of the familiar and the new. We recognise friends and neighbours, our streets, houses, the school and the church - and yet it is all at the same time, changed and unfamiliar. As I said in church on Sunday morning, this confusing mix of old and new must have been what it was like for those people who first encountered Jesus. The familiar words of the Hebrew scriptures were invoked by and about a man who was doing the unexpected, the unanticipated.

And just as we are drawn into the scriptures by stories of people and places, so too have we been drawn to watch our own places and our own people on screen in an unfamiliar, and as yet unresolved story. By the time you receive this February copy of Dunlop Diary the plot will have been unravelled and explained, but in the meantime, while the printing presses are got ready, I'm looking forward to Friday and scanning the TV for familiar people and places.

Wishing you the comfort of the familiar and the challenge of the new,

Alison

Christmas Appeal East Ayrshire Churches Homelessness Action:

on the middle two Sundays in December we delivered two car loads of beautifully wrapped Christmas gifts, bags of food and cash donations of £200.

Janice Grant, EACHa organiser was delighted with Dunlop's help with over 2000 gifts and 110 food parcels from East Ayrshire Churches distributed in time for Christmas.

We appreciate the support this appeal always receives from the congregation and the wider community. Thank you all.

DUNLOP GALLERY

Our exhibition in February will be showing the work of the Tuesday Dunlop Art Group. It will run from Thursday the 6th of February to Wednesday the 4th of March. Do pop in to the Conservatory Cafe to view our local artists work. For more info contact Ellenor on 07811045600 or Shiona on 07506951620.

CALLING ALL KNITTERS AND CROCHETERS

Can you help? We have formed a small group and will be collaborating with Dunlop Kirk and Dunlop Primary School to have displays of poppies in the village for the time around Remembrance Sunday.

If you can help please contact Diane Wilson on 01560 483612 or come and join our Facebook page, Dunlop and Lugton Poppies. Please speak to Diane or anyone in the group for help with patterns for either knitting or crochet.

Thanks.

Dunlop Community Cinema

Dunlop Community Cinema started the new year with a bang thanks to our sell-out showing of 'Deadwater Fell'. Hope you all enjoyed spotting yourselves, family and friends in the first episode and hope to see you all again on Friday 31st for the final episode.

As Sunday 2nd Feb is Groundhog Day, it seemed the perfect choice of film for a fundraiser for SAMH (Scottish Association for Mental Health). Come along and donate to a great cause. Doors open at 2.30pm.

Our next Friday night film will be 'Peanut Butter Falcon' on Friday 21st Feb. A comedy adventure about a young man with Down Syndrome who runs away from a residential home to realise his dream of becoming a pro-wrestler. On his journey, he meets a wayward fisherman and they both head to wrestling school, pursued by a concerned social worker. A buddy movie with a real Huck Finn feel, it'll warm the cockles of your heart. Doors open at 7.30 and the usual snacks and refreshments will be on offer. Hope to see you there.

Dunlop and District Community Company

At the recent AGM of the company Sheila Wyllie, Alan Porter and Pat Douglas who had all been co-opted as directors during the year had to stand down. All were re-elected to the board. In addition Trish Goudy, Brian McGaw and Callum Alldridge were elected as directors.

Sue Scott, who was standing down as a director, was thanked for all her work. Sue will remain on the committee involved in organising the Community Cinema.
