

DUNLOP DIARY

Dunlop Church of Scotland is a Registered Scottish Charity. Charity Number SC000447

From the Church of Scotland, Dunlop

November 2020

Dear friends and neighbours,

Last month it was a real pleasure to be able to see and chat with children and families as they came along to collect their Messy Church In-a-Bag before heading home to watch the video on Facebook. The bags contained everything they needed to make their lanterns, cosy campfires, and agamographs, along with a couple of light-up bangles. If you'd like to know what an agamograph is, then have a look on Dunlop Messy Church FB page, where you'll also see photos of completed crafts made by the children. In the short video I showed my Bible with bookmarks in all the many places where God tells us "Don't be afraid!" and we remembered that He sent his Son, Jesus, to us as the light to the world.

Our next Messy Church will be at the end of November so look out for more information about that!

The clocks have changed, the days are dark and dreary, and the news about the pandemic is a bit gloomy. The light and cheer, though, is to be found around us as we think about what matters to us, and how we can do things differently. As I write this, pumpkin trails and competitions are on-going, and even the Dunlop Fun Run has gone on-line!

As a church we have made arrangements to mark Remembrance Sunday on 8th November, and the Dunlop and Lugton Poppy community group have crocheted and knitted thousands of woolly poppies for display. In this Diary you'll also find information about our Circle of Care - a befriending service which we are looking to develop at this difficult time when many of us aren't able to meet up with friends and family.

Christmas is already on our minds, and as the restrictions mean that we can't enjoy Nativity Services in the traditional way, we thought we'd try something very different this year. We're inviting you all to take part in a communal telling of the Nativity Story. In the Diary you'll find an insert with all the information you need to get inspired and get started. We'll show your video clips throughout Advent with the final full Nativity film being shown and shared at Christmas time! If you, like me, were always a shepherd and never got to be an angel, now's your chance to shine!

We shine God's light in the darkness - we shine with Him and for Him and each other, and together we will get through this.

Peace, love, joy and hope to you all,

Alison

Rev Alison McBrier
